To the best of the Directors’ knowledge, information and belief having made all reasonable enquiries, the Potential Purchaser and its ultimate beneficial owner are third parties independent of, and not connected with the Company and its connected persons. The principal terms of the MOU are as follows:

The Potential Purchaser shall carry out and complete the Due Diligence during the period as agreed in the Formal Agreement. Subject to any applicable laws and regulations, the GEM Listing Rules or guidance, restrictions and prohibitions of the Stock Exchange, the SFC or any regulatory institutions, in order for the Potential Purchaser to conduct the Due Diligence, the Vendor shall provide, and shall procure the Company and the Group to provide, and/or permit the Potential Purchaser and its advisors to obtain, all relevant information and documents required by the Potential Purchaser for the sole purpose of making an informed decision relating to the Possible Transaction.

In accordance with the requirement of the Takeovers Code, if the Possible Transaction materialises, an obligation on the part of the Potential Purchaser and parties acting in concert with it will be triggered for them to make a mandatory unconditional general offer for all the issued Shares (other than those already owned or agreed to be acquired by the Potential Purchaser and parties acting in concert with it) under Rule 26.1 of the Takeovers Code. RESPONSIBILITIES OF STOCKBROKERS, BANKS AND OTHER INTERMEDIARIES

In accordance with Rule 3.8 of the Takeovers Code, reproduced below is the full text of Note 11 to Rule 22 of the Takeovers Code in relation to the responsibilities of stockbrokers, banks and other intermediaries:

“Responsibilities of stockbrokers, banks and other intermediaries

Stockbrokers, banks and others who deal in relevant securities on behalf of clients have a general duty to ensure, so far as they are able, that those clients are aware of the disclosure obligations attaching to associates of an offeror or the offeree company and other persons under Rule 22 and that those clients are willing to comply with them.

Principal traders and dealers who deal directly with investors should, in appropriate cases, likewise draw attention to the relevant Rules. However, this does not apply when the total value of dealings (excluding stamp duty and commission) in any relevant security undertaken for a client during any 7 day period is less than $1 million.

This dispensation does not alter the obligation of principals, associates and other persons themselves to initiate disclosure of their own dealings, whatever total value is involved.

Intermediaries are expected to co-operate with the Executive in its dealings enquiries. Therefore, those who deal in relevant securities should appreciate that stockbrokers and other intermediaries will supply the Executive with relevant information as to those dealings, including identities of clients, as part of that co-operation.”

WARNINGS: There is no assurance that the Possible Transaction will materialise or eventually be consummated and the relevant discussions may or may not lead to a general offer under Rule 26.1 of the Takeovers Code. The Possible Transaction may or may not proceed. Shareholders and potential investors should exercise caution when dealing in the securities of the Company, and if they are in any doubt about their position, they should consult their professional adviser(s).
